

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

DONALD ROTSIN BARREN,

Case No. 2:19-cv-00142-APG-VCF

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

JAMES DZURENDA, et al.,

Defendants.

1. DISCUSSION

This action began with a pro se civil rights complaint filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 by a state prisoner. Plaintiff submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners. (ECF No. 1.) However, Plaintiff has since filed a change of address, indicating that he is no longer incarcerated. (ECF No. 18.) As such, the Court denies Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners as moot. The Court now directs Plaintiff to file an application to proceed in forma pauperis by a non-prisoner within thirty (30) days from the date of this order or pay the full filing fee of $400.

Plaintiff has also filed two motions requesting that the Court issue an order for the United States Marshalls to serve the Defendants. (ECF Nos. 13, 16.) After Plaintiff files an application to proceed in forma pauperis by a non-prisoner or pays the full filing fee of $400, the Court will issue a subsequent order addressing service. As such, the Court denies Plaintiff's motions without prejudice.

Finally, the Defendants filed a motion requesting that the Court amend its order setting an early inmate mediation conference in this case. (ECF No. 19.) The motion indicates that because Plaintiff is no longer incarcerated, the attorney general's office could not facilitate Plaintiff's participation in the mediation conference. (Id.) The parties have participated in the mediation conference, and the Court denies the motion as moot.
